ACCIDENTAL LOSS OF LIFE AND SEVERE INJURY BENEFITS

Accidental Death & Dismemberment insurance, which we call Accidental Loss of Life and Severe Injury Benefits, covers you for an accidental loss of life, limb, motion, or sight.

How Could These Benefits Help Me?

If you have a serious accident which keeps you from working, Accidental Loss of Life and Severe Injury Benefits provide financial help for you and loved ones you support. It covers accidents wherever they happen – including at home, at work or while traveling.

This affordable coverage provides a cash payment if you experience a loss of life, limb, motion, or sight, and other severe injuries as a result of a covered accident. That money is paid in addition to any employee benefits such as life insurance that can be used to help cover costs like:

Housing

Food

Education

Final Arrangements
